SAKHAROV, SOVIET DIPLOMAT-TURNED
CIA AGENT, TO SPEAK DEC. 5

Vladimir Sakharov, the Soviet-trained diplomat whose disillusionment with the KGB led him to become a CIA agent, is scheduled to speak from 8-10 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 5, at the University of San Diego.

Sakharov, an expert on the new Soviet elite, international terrorism and the Soviet intelligence system, is currently involved in an organization specializing in foreign risk management.

His is a fascinating story of international intrigue, briefly glimpsed on a recent segment of "60 Minutes."

Sakharov, who will speak in Camino Theater, may be available for interviews prior to his speech.

For more information, please contact John Nunes at 260-4682.
